

unfolding woman, in which he was interrupted, arrested, and thrown into jail, and on Monday morning, when he was released, he found a note pinned to his door—a sum so inadequate to the offense, that the citizens, to the number of about seventy-five, gathered round the jail, and in the place of the note, they pinned the law in its place. Monday night the party presented to Billon's residence, took him prisoner, marched him outside the city, and, in the presence of a large assembly, a noose applied to his bare back, settled the score which had been running up for years; then applying a thick coat of tar and feathers to his person, the party, shouting "Liberty and life," left him, with an admonition to sin no more.

UNDESIRABLE.—Love is as necessary to woman's heart as a fashionable bonnet to her head. It does not, as folks think, rather make for nothing to have a husband than to have no husband at all; whereas the recent fashion has shown that men are satisfied with a very little bonnet. It is useful to have a husband, and it is useful to have a philosophy too; remarked, and we give the advice to all who are in love, that "love is as essential for what it is worth, that 'love is as essential to the very life of woman, that in selfishness she will sacrifice her husband, and in selflessness she is so unfortunate as not to love her husband."

THE "IT IS STILL THEY COME" DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN LANCASTER, PA.—The Know-Nothing have sustained another bad defeat in one of the strongholds, although, of course, we have had confirmation of it by telegraph. At a recent election for the office of school board, the Know-Nothing, which was sharply contested, the Democrats succeeded in carrying the city by a majority of one hundred and thirty. Last year the bigoted and proscriptionist faction elected the School Board by a majority of more than a hundred.

THE PEACE OF THE UNITED STATES.—A correspondent of the New Orleans Bee, writing from the city of Mexico states that Santa Anna was so seriously ill that he was not expected to live. His malady was attributed to the heat and throat, causing a state of

KNOW-NOTHING LODGE DISBANDED.—The Kio Nothing lodge in the town of Stetson, in this county, have disbanded and burnt up their records. This example is worthy of imitation, and all good citizens who have, thoughtless or thoughtless enough to belong to a lodge of this kind, should use their best endeavors to effect the disbandment of the lodges with which they are connected, and failing in that, they should

BACHELORS MAKE A NOTE OF IT.—The young ladies of the Illinois Institute, at Wheaton, Ill., Page county, recently passed the following resolution unanimously:

"Resolved, That we, the young ladies of the Illinois Institute, pledge ourselves not to keep company with, or join in the sacred bonds of matrimony the Maine liquor law, or some other prohibitive law."

CONEWAGO.—We learn from the officers of Brazil that the Conewago was got aloft on the morning of the 30th, and landed at the shore. The pumps, however, were allowed to get out of order, and sank again. She was again raised the evening, but while the men were at supper was allowed to sink a third time. She will be allowed again, without repairs, trouble, and will go Rock Island for repairs.—N. Louis Rep.

NEW MODE OF FITTING UP PINS.—The Oaks

are piled up in a compact form, leaving the heads exposed on one end of the cylinder, in a manner convenient for use, without being transferred to a pin-cushion. Each roll contains two hundred or eighty pins—the number usually sold in a single paper.

NEW YORK ROWDIES.—An indoffensive man named James Wilmut was attacked on Wednesday afternoon, while driving a cart through Stanton street, by a party of ruffians belonging to a local company, and so badly beaten by bowlders, besides receiving a pistol ball in the back, that when rescued he was in a dying condition. The man has not given them the slightest cause for the war.

A BIG STORY.—A rich discovery of gold is said to have been made within a few miles of Diamond Springs, California. Reports of an almost incredible nature are in circulation. Three Irishmen is said, after working three weeks without getting the first color, finally "struck it fat," and went out in the same period of time, about $62,000. There has been a tremendous rush to the scene of discovery.

been in the habit of charging commissions on sent letters when "forwarded" to their proper destination, by entering them with letters originally distributed at their respective offices, instructions have been given that such commissions are not authorized by law, and cannot be allowed.

24 An old Scotch lady was in the habit of inculcating the duties of charity into her grandchildren after the following fashion: "My dear when I and your father and mother have finished

My Book, or the Veil I lifted," (a title catch the morbid Miss Bunckley's (who would be a nun forthcoming volume, is likely to get selling notice from the cards of the lady and others and the proceedings for an injunction against publishers. This procedure looks like a ruse for notoriety.—N. Y. Mirror, 4th inst.)

It is reported that fifty-six booters were discharged from the United States bonded warehouse in New York, by order of Collector Redden on Saturday. The cause is alleged to be the falling off in the imports to such an extent that there is nothing for them to do.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The ears of the Old Central Railroad ran off the track on Wednesday night, when Mr. Wm. Hutter, the baggage-master, was so severely injured, by being partially crushed.

A CURIOUS FACT.—In the United States there were, in 1850, two thousand and five hundred and fifty-five persons over one hundred years of age; in France there were only one hundred and twenty, though their population was nearly thirty-millions.

25 A man named William Mangham, employed in the printing office of Messrs. Stacey & McCulla, in Philadelphia, while having a heavy and mangled to death in a horrible manner.

247 A Baptist magazine, the Christian Review, is arguing against the flood, or at least that it was not universal—only a partial deluge. The limits of the ark, certain vegetable and geological facts, and other arguments, are adduced in support of the theory.

248 Courage; don't give up the ship; keep as hard-faced as a brick against misfortune; keep thing beneath the standard of truth and right, you are bound to win the stakes—prosperity and happiness.

146 Solitary thought corrodes the mind, if it be not blended with social activity; and so activity produces a restless craving for excitement if it be not blended with solitary thought.

147 A young lady being asked whether she would wear a wig when her hair turned grey,

Letters from Munich, in Bavaria, state that the bronze statues of Patrick Henry and Ludwig Van Beethoven are ready for shipment to America.

An Irishman, in speaking of a relative who was hung, said he died during a tight-rope performance.

The ship Frank Pierce has just cleared from Charleston for Liverpool with a cargo of cotton valued at $200,000.

☛ The chap that went to California to dig up a gold mine, has returned; he has brought with him a musty musket, which shoots ten times in two hours.

☛ Mr. Tucker, the Brooklyn editor and printer, recently tried for the murder of his child, and acquitted on the ground of insanity, has been removed to the State Lunatic Asylum, Utica.

☛ Reports from New Orleans intimate that the new slave law will be enforced.

12-7 "Lobby member" is a dictionary term, defined by Webster thus: "A person who frequents the lobby of a house of legislation."
